

K-LOVE is an essential part of my family's life as well as background music in our business which has the potential of reaching 100's of people. If it were replaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming, our rights for quality Christian broadcasting would be stolen. God, Jesus and the entire christian message is absolutely vital in todays crisis oriented world.